Implementing Technology Into The Management Of Patients With Mental Health Disorder

Wednesday, September 25, 2019 | 6:30pm - 8:30pm CST

Objectives:

• Discuss approaches and challenges to implementation and adoption of digital technology in the mental health clinic.
• Review current developments for digital health in psychiatry and areas where technology can be used in clinical practice.
• Consider advantages and challenges of using digital tools in mental healthcare.

Speakers are paid consultants to Otsuka Pharmaceutical Development & Commercialization, Inc.

Evan H. Goulding, MD, PhD
Assistant Professor, Department of Psychiatry & Behavioral Sciences Northwestern University

Paul M. Duck
Senior Associate, OPEN MINDS; Former VP, Strategy & Development, Beacon Health Options

David C. Mohr, PhD
Director of the Center for Behavioral Intervention Technologies and Professor of Preventive Medicine, Northwestern University

Visit www.PsychU.org to learn more and register today!